Q: Rails and JSON I'm currently at this issue where the JSON simply won't work with my Rails app. My code is...
`s.post('/parse_json/submit_json_data', {data: JSON.stringify({json_string: {json_string: 'test'}})}, function(data){ alert("Now, data.data is: " + data.data); });` My routes.rb contains...
`get 'parse_json/submit_json_data'` When I run this, I am returned with a Net::HTTPServerException: unsupported media type. Now, I'm sure I'm missing something very very simple. I've tried various things such as including the object between single quotes, changing the data into a string, adding?_json=true to the end of my url... Any ideas? A: Try to send the data: var data = {data: JSON.stringify({json_string: 'test'})}; $.ajax({ type: "POST",
